Introduction

Higher Education Institutions (HEIs) are the backbone of the society which produces intellectuals who contribute to the society in many ways. The role of the HEIs in building capable and responsible individuals for the society is emphasised for continuous qualitative improvement. Education as an important factor towards the progress and development of the society, its quality is a great concern. Quality is a major concern in the whole system of education. For assessing quality of every educational institution, the National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC) was established in 1994 at Bangalore. The NAAC evaluates university and colleges, and on the basis of their parameter a particular grade is given to the college (Mahanta, 2022). The criteria of NAAC for evaluation of Higher Education are: 1. Curricular Aspects 2. Teaching-Learning and Evaluation 3. Research, Innovation and Extension 4. Infrastructure and Learning Resources 5. Student Support and Progression 6. Governance, Leadership and Management 7. Institutional Values and Best practices. Based on the seven criteria, the educational institutions are being evaluated and a particular grade is given to the institution.

Likewise in Meghalaya, the higher education institution or the colleges have been assessed and accredited by NAAC on the basis of their fulfilment of the required condition, to be identified as an institution with quality. There are 83 number of colleges in Meghalaya that are affiliated to North-Eastern Hill University (NEHU).
